The Collect of the Day

BCP 230

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Psalm 1 read responsively by whole verse

- 1 Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, *
nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!
- 2 Their delight is in the law of the Lord, ***
and they meditate on his law day and night.
- 3 They are like trees planted by streams of water,
bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.
- 4 It is not so with the wicked; ***
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.
- 5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
- 6 For the Lord knows the way of the righteous, ***
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Gospel

Priest A Reading from the Gospel according to Matthew.

22:34-46

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." He said to them, "How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet"'? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?" No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Priest Here ends the Lesson.

The Homily: Jessica Abell

The Priest invites the People to stand or kneel for the

The Prayers of the People, Form II

BCP 385

In the course of the silence after each bidding, the People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Diocesan Bishop Phoebe, Presiding Bishop Michael, and the Archbishop of Canterbury Justin; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people. Pray for the Church. Silence

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace. Silence

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.

Pray for those in any need or trouble. Silence

I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of him. Pray that they may find and be found by him. Silence

I ask your prayers for the departed, especially for Christopher Luke Yohan whose ashes were committed yesterday at Grace-St. Luke's, and for those who have died from coronavirus. Pray for those who have died. Silence

I ask your prayers for the special needs and concerns of this congregation, including those reflected on the Prayer List in this service leaflet; I ask your thanksgivings for the birth of Emma Frances Owens, daughter of Mary and Paul Owens; and for the marriage of Mary Elizabeth Harpole and Douglas Young Snider. Silence

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored. Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day. Silence

Loving God, we pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins. Silence

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Priest says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

BCP 360

Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Officiant and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Offertory

During the offertory music or following this service, your offering supports this virtual ministry and much more of life at Grace-St. Luke's: visit gracestlukes.org/onlinegiving; text GSLChurch ALMS to 73256 to give to ALMS; text GSLChurch PLEDGE to 73256 to give to 2020 PLEDGE; mail to the church office. We are not closed during this season of physical distancing. Instead, we are becoming more open and creative in how we abide with God, walk by faith, and serve one another. Your gift to the glory of God supports the administration, operations, and life of Grace-St. Luke's Church.

Anthem at the Offertory, "BLESSED IS THE MAN"

music: Jane M. Marshall (1924-2019)

text: from Psalm 1

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the seat of scoffers;
but his delight is in the law of the Lord,
and on his law he meditates day and night.
He is like a tree planted by streams of water.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP 364

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

Mindful of COVID-19 pandemic precautions and guidelines that exclude our ability to assemble for the Holy Eucharist, the Officiant and People offer the following prayers as part of a Spiritual Communion. These are recited daily throughout the church catholic (universal) by communities who long for the occasion when all can fully participate in the central practice of both blessing and receiving the Holy Sacrament. Until then, we pray:

In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where your blessed Body and Blood are offered this day, and remembering particularly Grace-St. Luke's and those worshipping there, I long to offer praise and thanksgiving, for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption won for us by your life, death, and resurrection, for the means of grace and the hope of glory, and particularly for the blessings given me.

I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since I cannot at this time receive communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.

Come Lord Jesus, and dwell in my heart in the fullness of your strength; be my wisdom and guide me in right pathways; conform my life and actions to the image of your holiness; and, in the power of your gracious might, rule over every hostile power that threatens or disturbs the growth of your kingdom, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The Blessing

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Weekly Message from the Clergy

Fall Happenings and Congregational Development Opportunities, A Message from The Rev. Laura F. Gettys. Connections and Resilience abound here at Grace-St. Luke's! We are in our 5-week series of sacred storytelling small groups. Each week these 5 groups meet to engage, reflect, and connect with one another while honoring safety protocols. The feedback and energy have been full of gratitude and hope. And so, with this same enthusiasm and hearing the feedback from the recent congregational development survey, we are planning an outdoor concert at Snowden Field coming up Friday, November 13. Come as you are able to enjoy an evening with musical talents Posey Hedges, Jim Spake, and John Gaskill as they play a "genre-bending mix" of tunes from 5-7 p.m. with the field opening at 4:30 p.m. for arrivals and setting up in everyone's socially distanced chalk area. Details, including the signup link, are below under Community Life and watch for additional information in future eNews, on Facebook, and on the website.

Next, we are aware that there are folks who want to walk and exercise with this good weather while connecting and chatting. So, with the help of Christi Authement, GSL Director of Athletics and Wellness, and Bev Trojan, walking groups may be starting up in the next weeks so stay tuned for information to sign up and get moving and grooving! Finally, stay tuned for opportunities around Advent Wreath-making and socially distanced Outdoor Fire-Pit Parties.

My thanks to Anna Holtzclaw and Hallie Peyton, chairs of the Congregational Development Committee, for their good leadership and support. Let's hear it for connections and deeper ways to create community and resilience through relationship building and joy during these full times.

For more information about fall happenings and how to connect and get involved in life at GSL, contact Anna Holtzclaw or Hallie Peyton via Realm Connect (www.gracestlukes.org/realm) or visit gracestlukes.org/connect. –The Rev. Laura F. Gettys

Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your own fold, a lamb of your own flock, a sinner of your own redeeming. Receive her into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen. May her soul and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.* Obituary: tinyurl.com/RevSenterCrook

Social Justice

Getting into Good Trouble, MICAH's 3rd Annual Public Meeting, October 25. The Social Justice Committee invites Grace-St. Luke's to Getting into Good Trouble, MICAH's 3rd Annual Public Meeting, today at 4 p.m. Before COVID19, this was an annual gathering of all members and interested parties to join together to push for a more just and equitable Memphis. It was also a time to be in community with our brothers and sisters who want to help advance Memphis, in shared good spirit. The Annual Meeting is serious business mixed with much fun and laughter, seeing old friends, and getting to know the stranger sitting next to you, and making new friends. The feeling of good will and optimism for the future of Memphis is contagious. However, that meeting is not available to us this year, but yes, we can join in virtually! In fact it is an opportunity to have more people join us, as we are not restricted by the number of seats available in the given church venue. Follow this link for details: www.gracestlukes.org/events/getting-into-good-trouble.
