The Word of God

Hymn 518, stanzas 1 & 3-4, “CHRIST IS MADE THE SURE FOUNDATION” music: Westminster Abbey, Henry Purcell (1659-1695), adapt.; desc. James Gillespie (b. 1929) words: Latin, ca. 7th cent.; tr. Hymns Ancient and Modern, 1861, after John Mason Neale (1818-1866), alt.

1 Christ is made the sure foundation, Christ the head and cornerstone, chosen of the Lord, and precious,
God on high, in exultant jubilation Hosts, today, with thy wonted loving-kindness with the blessed to retain, and hereafter binding all the Church in one; holy Zion’s pours perpetual melody; God the One in hear thy servants as they pray, and thy fullest with the blessed to retain, and hereafter in thy glory evermore with thee to reign.

2 All that dedicated city, dearly loved of thee to gain; what they gain from thee, forever
God on high, in exultant jubilation Hosts, today, with thy wonted loving-kindness
with the blessed to retain, and hereafter binding all the Church in one; holy Zion’s pours perpetual melody; God the One in hear thy servants as they pray, and thy fullest with the blessed to retain, and hereafter in thy glory evermore with thee to reign.

3 To this temple, where we call thee, come, O Lord of thee to gain; what they gain from thee, forever cornerstone, chosen of the Lord, and precious,
God on high, in exultant jubilation Hosts, today, with thy wonted loving-kindness
with the blessed to retain, and hereafter binding all the Church in one; holy Zion’s pours perpetual melody; God the One in hear thy servants as they pray, and thy fullest with the blessed to retain, and hereafter in thy glory evermore with thee to reign.

4 Here vouchsafe to all thy servants what they ask of thee to gain; what they gain from thee, forever
cornerstone, chosen of the Lord, and precious,
God on high, in exultant jubilation Hosts, today, with thy wonted loving-kindness
with the blessed to retain, and hereafter binding all the Church in one; holy Zion’s pours perpetual melody; God the One in hear thy servants as they pray, and thy fullest with the blessed to retain, and hereafter in thy glory evermore with thee to reign.
Officiant  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People  And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity
Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day
Grant, O merciful God, that your Church, being gathered together in unity by your Holy Spirit, may show forth your power among all peoples, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah
Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness, you that seek the Lord. Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug. Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you; for he was but one when I called him, but I blessed him and made him many. For the Lord will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places, and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song. Listen to me, my people, and give heed to me, my nation; for a teaching will go out from me, and my justice for a light to the peoples. I will bring near my deliverance swiftly, my salvation has gone out and my arms will rule the peoples; the coastlands wait for me, and for my arm they hope. Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and those who live on it will die like gnats; but my salvation will be for ever, and my deliverance will never be ended.

Reader  Here ends the Lesson.

Psalm 138  read responsively by whole verse
1  I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; * before the gods I will sing your praise.
2  I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, * because of your love and faithfulness;
3  For you have glorified your Name * and your word above all things.
4  When I called, you answered me; * you increased my strength within me.
5  All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord, * when they have heard the words of your mouth.
6  They will sing of the ways of the Lord, * that great is the glory of the Lord.
7  Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly; * he perceives the haughty from afar.
8  Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; * you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies; your right hand shall save me.
9  The Lord will make good his purpose for me; * O Lord, your love endures for ever; do not abandon the works of your hands.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: * as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
The Gospel

Priest A Reading from the Gospel according to Matthew. 16:13-20

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Priest Here ends the Lesson.

The Homily: The Rev. Laura F. Gettys

The Apostles’ Creed
In the assurance of eternal life given at Baptism, let us proclaim our faith and say,

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth;
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
   He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
   He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
   He descended to the dead.
   On the third day he rose again.
   He ascended into heaven,
   and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
   He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
   the holy catholic Church,
   the communion of saints,
   the forgiveness of sins
   the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers of the People, Form VI
The Leader and People pray responsively

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God. Silence
For all people in their daily life and work;
For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.
For this community, the nation, and the world;
For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.
For the just and proper use of your creation;
For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.
For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;
For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.
For the peace and unity of the Church of God;
For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.
For Michael our Presiding Bishop, and Phoebe our Bishop; and for all bishops and other ministers;
For all who serve God in his Church.
For the special needs and concerns of this congregation, including those reflected on the Prayer List in this service leaflet; those infected with coronavirus and their caregivers; for reconciliation and healing of social unrest and violence throughout the world; and for those we name either silently or aloud [N.N.]. Hear us, Lord;
For your mercy is great.
We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life, including the gifts of time, talent, and treasure that support life at Grace-St. Luke’s; for our Parish School and all schools that serve our community; for the baptism of Caitlin Elizabeth Davies, daughter of Brian Davies & stepdaughter of Kacey Hickey Davies, baptized August 20, 2020. and other abundance we name either silently or aloud [N.N.]. We will exalt you, O God our King;

And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom, especially Varner Lamar Rencher Sr., the Rev. Ollie V. Rencher’s father in whose loving memory the altar flowers are given by the vestry, Douglas H. McClew, the Rev. Virginia Brown, and those we name either silently or aloud [N.N.]. Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins. Silence

Minister and People

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Priest says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Commissioning of Grace-St. Luke’s School Faculty and Staff

The Officiant begins

Our purpose is to commission all those gathered here in person as well as virtually in the Name of God and of this congregation to the special ministry to which they are called here at our School.

The Officiant then says

You who have been called to a ministry as teachers and staff members at Grace-St. Luke’s Episcopal School: Will you, as long as you are engaged in this work, perform it with diligence?

Headmaster on behalf of Faculty & Staff

I will.

Officiant

Will you faithfully and reverently execute the duties of your ministry to the honor of God, and the benefit of the children and youth entrusted to your care?

Headmaster on behalf of Faculty & Staff

I will.

Headmaster on behalf of Faculty & Staff

Let us pray. Silence

God of all wisdom and knowledge, give your blessing and guidance to all who teach and work in our school, that by word and example they may lead those whom they teach to the knowledge and love of you, of one another, and of your creation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing of the Backpacks and Laptops

God of Wisdom, we give you thanks for teachers and students who now gather each day in both classrooms and homes. We thank you for this new beginning, for new books, screens, and new ideas. We thank you for sharpened pencils, and new crayons, and for courage and dedication to learn and grow together. We thank you for the gift of making mistakes and trying again. Help us to remember that asking the right questions is often as important as giving the right answers. Today we give you thanks for these your children, and we ask you to bless them with curiosity, grit, empathy and respect. May their backpacks and laptops be a sign to them that they have everything they need to learn and grow this year in school and Sunday School. May your brilliant love guide them. All this we ask through Jesus, who as a youth in the temple showed his longing to learn about question, and as an adult taught the Way of Love by story and example. Amen.
The Peace

Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Officiant and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Offertory

During the offertory music or following this service, your offering supports this virtual ministry and much more of life at Grace-St. Luke’s: visit gracestlukes.org/onlinegiving; text GSLChurch ALMS to 73256 to give to ALMS; text GSLChurch PLEDGE to 73256 to give to 2020 PLEDGE; mail to the church office. We are not closed during this season of physical distancing. Instead, we are becoming more open and creative in how we abide with God, walk by faith, and serve one another. Your gift to the glory of God supports the administration, operations, and life of Grace-St. Luke’s Church.

Anthem at the Offertory, “Lift thine eyes” from Elijah music: Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

text: Psalm 121:1-3

Lift thine eyes, O lift thine eyes to the mountains, whence cometh help. Thy help cometh from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth. He hath said, thy foot shall not be moved. Thy Keeper will never slumber.

The Lord’s Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

May God bless you with discomfort at easy answers, half truths, and superficial relationships, so that you may live deep within your heart.

May God bless you with anger at injustice, oppression and exploitation of people, so that you may work for justice, freedom and peace.

May God bless you with tears to shed for those who suffer from pain, rejection, starvation, and war, so that you may reach out your hand to comfort them and turn their pain to joy.

And may God bless you with enough foolishness to believe that you can make a difference in this world, so that you can do what others claim cannot be done.

In the name of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen. (A Four-Fold Benedictine Blessing)
Hymn 525, stanzas 1 & 4-5, “THE CHURCH’S ONE FOUNDATION”

music: Aurelia, Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)
text: Samuel John Stone (1839-1900)

The Dismissal

The people are dismissed with these words

Minister  Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People    Thanks be to God.

Weekly Message from the Clergy

Offering and Making Peace. Every day of our lives including during worship services, one of the most important things people can do is to offer peace. When doing so, we literally are greeting one another in the name of Christ as the image of God. Furthermore, followers of Jesus are called to be makers of peace, partnering with God to co-creating the kingdom on earth as in heaven. In faith, we are called to prioritize the business of peace in all things and at all times, all in the name of the hope, justice and love of God. As we go about our peace business, may the Gaelic blessing be on our mind and in our hearts: Deep peace of the running wave to you, Deep peace of the flowing air to you, Deep peace of the quiet earth to you, Deep peace of the shining stars to you, Deep peace of the gentle night to you, Moon and stars pour their healing light on you, Deep peace of Christ the light of the world to you, Deep peace of Christ to you. -The Rev. Ollie V. Rencher

Community Life

Keeping GSL Strong and Sustainable. Your sacred gifts of time, talent, and treasure are keeping GSL strong and sustainable. While parishioners are striving to practice self-care and care for one another during the COVID-19 pandemic, individual and household financial gifts also are supporting administration and operations, worship offerings, personnel, and much more. Pastoral Care. To alert the clergy of a pastoral matter concerning yourself or a parishioner, including any medical procedures, contact the clergy confidentially via 901-252-6320 or pastoralcare@gracestlukes.org. For hospitalizations or emergencies concerning a member, contact the 24/7 Clergy-on-Call phone line at 901-252-6334. This is the best way to communicate pastoral needs and ensure a prompt response from the clergy.

Outreach

Giving a Little Extra. I make regular donations to one of my favorite non-profits in Memphis and it doesn’t cost me a dime. How’s that work? By using Kroger Community Rewards – just log into your account, select an organization, and let Kroger do the rest. I recently upped my donations to the same organization, again without any additional dollars leaving my pocket. I just registered at Amazon Smile. Just go to smile.amazon.com and search for your favorite agency – most of GSL’s current Servant Ministry Partners are listed. One extra step to remember is to log into Amazon Smile when you start shopping. Let services like these help further our mission and those of our partners! -Bill Pichette, Outreach Chair

Outreach Grant Applications Due August 31. The GSL Outreach Grants process is open with the application and details located on the Community Grants web page. We are seeking “servant ministry partner” agencies whose mission aligns with our focus areas: feed/clothe/shelter the needy; care for the sick; healing brokenness in the world. GSL will award one “impact” grant of $7,500 and one “major” grant of $5,000 in each area. Spread the word to potential partners. If you have questions, email outreach@gracestlukes.org.

Social Justice

Social Justice welcomes your participation, ideas, resource suggestions, and prayers. Since we cannot gather as group yet, please feel free to contact:
